

RUSSEL AND SAVAGE SWEEP DISTRICT IN NATIONAL DELEGATESHIP CONTEST

RAY N. ANDERSON ELECTED MEMBER OF STATE COMMITTEE BY BIG MAJORITY

Comparitively Light Vote Recorded, But These Contests Brought Real Interest to Election—Morgan County Gave Russel a Four to One Endorsement—Messrs. Dye, Ticknor and Minter Defeated for Central Committee Membership.

The contest over delegates to the national republican convention from the twentieth congressional district and over membership in the state central committee gave large interest to the primary election Tuesday. Other than for the fact of the special interest referred to, and because of various contests relative to membership in the Morgan county central committee, the election would have been tame, indeed.

Russel and Savage Win.
Some weeks ago when Andrew Russel and S. O. Savage filed their petitions indicating that they would be candidates for delegates to the national convention, it was very apparent that a lively contest for place would occur. Homer J. Tice and Frank J. Heintz, who had been designated by Senator Sherman as his preference, had the prestige of the senator's name and influence throughout the district, but the organization effected by Mr. Russel and his friends discounted the Sherman influence and gave him a remarkable victory throughout the district. The indications were last night that Mr. Russel had carried every county in the district and that Mr. Tice, who has been for a number of years a Sherman manager in the state, did not carry more than two counties and possibly none. The returns from the district are incomplete and may change this estimate slightly, but it is very certain that Mr. Russel and Mr. Savage have been elected by very heavy majorities.

Precinct Contests.
Ray N. Anderson of Pittsfield, who opposed A. L. French for membership in the state central committee, received a vote of about equal to that cast for Mr. Russel, and carried every county in the district. Aside from the contest over the delegateship and state committee membership, there were several interesting precinct battles. In district No. 1 E. L. Dye was defeated with a large majority by Louis Leurg. In district No. 11 E. E. Ticknor was defeated by C. O. Bayha by a margin of 6.

The underlying opposition to Mr. Dye and Mr. Ticknor was the part they took some months ago in the Morgan county central committee action which was evidently designed to injure the candidacy of Andrew Russel for governor. In district No. 9 a very warm fight developed between Edward Kastrup and Dr. A. H. Kennibrew, with victory for Mr. Kastrup by a vote of 76 to 90.

In district No. 10 Robert Leggett was elected over John Minter by a vote of approximately 60 to 29. This result was also part of the aftermath of the central committee action of some months ago. In the outlying precincts about the only contest was at Meredosia, where H. L. Deppe was victorious defeating Frank Taggart. A very warm fight was put up by both factions there.

Progressive Vote Slumps.

The falling off of the Progressive vote was notable throughout the county and in a number of precincts not a single vote was cast on the Progressive ticket. John Maynard Harlan, candidate for delegate to the national convention, with Roosevelt as preference, received 1,070 votes. The result is attributable partly to the fact that he was an avowed Roosevelt candidate and partially because many voters doubtless cast ballots for him without recognizing that his presidential preference was different from other candidates on the ticket.

In various ways it was an interesting election and the figures from the several precincts afford material for political reflection. Twenty-eight precincts out of thirty-one in Morgan county give the following results on the Republican ticket:

ELECTION RETURNS INCOMPLETE FROM THE TWENTIETH DISTRICT

Figures From All Counties Show That Andrew Russel, S. O. Savage and Ray N. Anderson Won Handsily—Light Vote in Most Precincts.

It was impossible to secure detailed figures from the various counties of the twentieth congressional district last night, but incomplete returns made it certain that Andrew Russel and Samuel O. Savage were easily elected delegates to the national convention over Homer J. Tice and Frank J. Heintz. It was also certain that Ray N. Anderson of Pittsfield was elected member of the state central committee over A. L. French of this city by about a two to one vote.

Brown County.
Three precincts in Brown county, including Mt. Sterling, gave: Homer J. Tice 127
Frank J. Heintz 96
Andrew Russel 34
Samuel O. Savage 18
Ray N. Anderson 83
A. L. French 34
There were but seventy-six Republican ballots cast in the seven other precincts of the county.

Jersey County.
Reports from Jerseyville were that Homer J. Tice led Mr. Russel by 50 votes with Samuel O. Savage third and Frank J. Heintz fourth. Ray N. Anderson had a lead of 43 votes over A. L. French.

Menard County.
Returns from Petersburg gave S. O. Savage and Andrew Russel about 275 each against 300 cast for Homer J. Tice and P. J. Heintz. Ray N. Anderson had a strong lead over A. L. French. In Tallula, Mr. Savage's home town, the vote in his

ACCUSES BROTHERS OF MURDERING POLICEMAN

ROY JOE LEWIS IS ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH ST. LOUIS KILLING

States Ora Lewis Killed Policeman McKenna and that Ora and Frank Lewis Killed Patrolman Dillon after He Had Followed Them into Their Garage.

St. Louis, Mo., April 11.—Roy Joe Lewis is under arrest here in connection with the murder of Policeman John McKenna and Patrolman William A. Dillon today confessed that he was one of the two men arrested by McKenna by one of whom he was slain and that he knows the facts as to the murder of Policeman Dillon.

Roy Lewis said that his brother, Ora, who was arrested with him by McKenna, shot the policeman after the latter had disarmed Roy and that his brothers Ora and Frank killed Patrolman Dillon after he had followed them into their garage in search of the murderers of McKenna. According to the confession Roy had no part in the actual killing of either officer.

Lewis late today signed a confession of which the following is a part:

"Wednesday, Frank and Ora, my brothers, and I left the city in two machines. We drove to Hannibal. Thursday we started to Mexico, Mo. We ran into St. Louis Friday morning. Ora and I drove up to the garage. When I got the door unlocked for Ora to drive in there was a motorcycle officer talking to Ora. The officer took us over to an oil station and told some one there to call up the police station. I heard a shot fired. Just as I heard the shot, I saw the officer falling. I saw the gun in Ora's hand.

"We got in the car and drove thru the alley. "We pulled into our garage and we just got the door shut, when we heard another machine. We peeped out and saw Frank. We talked with Frank a minute and decided to throw both cars away.

"Frank and Ora each took an auto and in about three quarters of an hour they came back. Ora saw a policeman coming. I wanted them to run away and leave the auto there.

"I went into the house, but they did not follow. I looked out thru the curtains. The policeman disappeared behind the garage. I went back to the garage and Ora and Frank had the policeman wrapped up in a blanket.

"Frank said: 'Well, we've got him now. What will we do with him?' Ora said: 'We better take him out and bury him.'

"I lay down. I woke about two in the afternoon when I heard some talking. Ora had come back on a bicycle. They had left with the officer's body about 9 or 9:30 in the morning."

Roy Lewis in his confession stated that since he and his brothers had been in St. Louis they had stolen about twenty-five automobiles.

Her equipment includes four torpedo tubes. She will be propelled by oil burning engines. Six other boats of the L type will be ready for delivery before July 1st, it was said.

BELMONT OUTLINES THREE STEPS ESSENTIAL TO PREPAREDNESS

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Three fundamental steps which he declared were essential to an adequate administration of naval and military policy, were outlined here today to the annual convention of the Navy League of the United States by its chairman, Percy Belmont.

They were—creation of a council of National Defense, abolition of the volunteer system and issuance of National Defense bonds.

Others speakers made pleas for naval preparedness and for private manufacture of war munitions. Mr. Belmont contended it was unfair to Congress to trust upon it the problem of defense without a commission to gather information necessary for formulation of legislation.

The present volunteer system he said would interfere in time of war with industry by drawing indiscriminately from all trades and calling forth arguments.

CABINET DISCUSSES SUBMARINE ISSUE

Outline of Future Course of U. S. is Said to Have Been Agreed On

DEFER FINAL DECISION

Officials Await Receipt of Note Regarding the Sussex and Other Merchant Ships

NOTE WILL DISCLAIM BLAME

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The submarine issue between Germany and the United States was discussed in all its phases today at a meeting of President Wilson and his cabinet. A general outline of the future course of the American government is understood to have been agreed upon, although a final decision was postponed pending receipt of the German note on its way regarding the Sussex and other merchant ships which recently have met disaster and additional evidence in the same cases collected by American diplomats and due here Thursday.

Note Will Disclaim Blame.
It is known thru confidential advice from Ambassador Gerard that the note from Berlin will deny that any German submarine torpedoed the Sussex and disclaim blame in connection with other attacks about which the ambassador has inquired. Consequently, in spite of the convincing evidence in the hands of the state department, any reply that may be sent probably will not deal exclusively with any one case or group of cases.

If such a communication as now is contemplated is sent to Germany it will be designed to preclude the possibility of further drawn out diplomatic exchanges and to make it plain that reiterated assurances and promises that international law will be respected cannot protect the friendly relations between the two countries if alleged attacks upon peaceful merchantmen carrying Americans are continued.

It probably will include a resume of all the many vessels attacked from the time of the Lusitania down to the present.

The state department already has begun the collection of evidence covering the whole history of Germany's submarine operations. One of the questions discussed by cabinet members today was whether the United States should include in its list of vessels attacked, neutral ships carrying no Americans. An argument against doing this was that such vessels carry the flags of sovereign nations able to speak for themselves, but the preponderating view was that they should be included both on the ground that many were going to or coming from American ports and on the broad grounds of humanity.

House Calls on President.

Col. E. M. House, the president's close advisor, came to the white house today for the fourth time since he returned from Europe as the emissary of the president to investigate the submarine and other foreign questions. His return at the time when it was admitted the policy of the American government was about to be determined, was considered significant.

SHERMAN AND WILSON HAVE IT THEIR OWN WAY

SULLIVAN RETAINS CONTROL OF DEMOCRATIC MACHINERY

Former Governor Deneen Apparently Retains His Strength Downstate, but Thompson Captures Sixteen and Deneen Fourteen Chicago Wards.

BULLETIN.
CHICAGO, April 11.—The complete Chicago vote, presidential preference, gave Wilson 79,393, Sherman 63,823, Roosevelt 11,620, Hughes 950, Root 193, Thompson 2. Only Sherman's and Wilson's names were on the ballot.

Chicago, April 11.—At the presidential preference primary in Illinois today Senator Sherman, Republican, and President Wilson had it all their own way, as all other names had to be written in. A comparatively small vote was cast outside of Chicago.

Roger C. Sullivan retained control of the Democratic political machinery in the state and wrested control of the Cook county (Chicago) committee from the Sabath-Harrison faction.

Former Governor Deneen apparently retained his strength downstate, and Mayor Thompson captured sixteen and Deneen fourteen of the city's 35 wards. Five wards returned neutrals to the Republican county committee.

One thousand twelve precincts out of 2,168 in Chicago gave Wilson 43,396 votes, while 43 voters wrote in the name of Champ Clark. Sherman in the same precincts received 32,670 votes. Roosevelt's name was written in by 4,960 persons, Hughes by 301, Root by 63, and Mayor Thompson by two.

A state supreme court decision some time ago held that women could not vote for delegates to the national convention, nor for ward committeemen. It did not mention presidential preference. On this point Attorney General Lucey held in an opinion that women could not vote the preferential ticket, either, but in Chicago this opinion was ignored and the women permitted to vote their preference. Downstate, however, the authorities adhered to the attorney general's opinion and ballots were not provided for the women.

Vote for Republican Delegates.

With no precinct figures available from 29 counties out of the 191 counties in Illinois outside of Cook county, the following vote was given to the Republican delegates at large; the list by counties showing 1,017 precincts missing:

ASSERTS DEFECTS IN LAWS

MILITATE AGAINST BUSINESS

NEW YORK, April 11.—Asserting there are serious defects in the railway laws which militate against the business interests of the country the railway business association issued a bulletin here today asking chambers of commerce and national trade association to consider the adoption of resolutions on the question of making railroad regulations more salutary and efficient.

According to the bulletin the plea is made "to resist the industrial shock which many think will follow the peace in Europe," and it adds that the most effective insurance policy in which the American people would invest, would be "the re-establishment of railway credit and railway purchasing power."

REPORT OF VILLA'S DEATH UNCONFIRMED

Bandit is Either Dead or Far to the South in Durango

EXPECT DEFINITE NEWS

Officers Say Pershing's Plan Must Be Changed or Abandoned if Villa Is in Durango

FUNSTON MAKES NO COMMENT

MEXICO CITY, April 11.—Francisco Villa has left the main body of his command and is in hiding, almost unattended, in the Sierra Mountains of Chihuahua, according to information given out at the war department today. The last of his retreating forces passed thru the town of Cuahuirachic, Chihuahua yesterday, in their flight toward the mountains. They were closely pursued by forces of the de facto government, who hope to capture the band and locate their leader.

EL PASO, Texas, April 11.—The pursuit of Villa probably will be brought to a definite conclusion within forty eight hours according to information received here today by an American mining concern with large interests at Parral and Torreon.

The messages received stated that the report that Villa was dead was current thruout Southern Chihuahua and Northern Durango and, while it still was far from confirmed, it was expected definite news would be received within the next few days.

Either Dead or Far South.
Either Francisco Villa is dead and his pursuit is ended automatically or he is far to the south in Central Durango. If the latter is true army officers say the entire plan of campaign of General Pershing must be re-organized or abandoned altogether. One officer who has had an active part in the direction of the plans of the expeditionary force, summed up the situation in this way:

"If Villa is dead there is no more to be said except to issue an order for our soldiers to come back to the United States. If he is not dead there is very little reason to doubt that he is well into the state of Durango. It is ridiculous to suppose our troops can keep on going south indefinitely with no railroads, lack of them. They either will have to halt or arrange for the dispatch of another expedition from some point on the border which will enable them to cut in behind Villa. I am not a prophet, but the most casual observer should see that the existing conditions are impossible of continuance."

The report of Villa's death was accepted as highly probable by General Bertani, the Carranza commander at Casas Grandes, now in Juarez.

"There is only one doctor in the country where Villa now is," said General Bertani, "and if blood poisoning has set in in Villa's wounded leg as my information has it, the doctor can do nothing if he has a chance. Witnesses who saw Villa told me his left leg was shattered by a fall from his horse following his being wounded by a bullet. They said the leg was in bad shape, swollen and gangrenous."

Has Only Small Force.

General Bertani said Villa had not more than fifty men with him. The Villista band which his troops encountered in the Madera section yesterday consisted of 23 members, of which fourteen were taken prisoners. The survivors carrying their wounded, escaped into the hills.

"Villa's forces consist now of only a handful," commented Bertani, "who will have to be hunted down like ordinary escaped criminals."

May Send Additional Troops.

San Antonio, Texas, April 11.—General Funston said today that General Pershing had made no request for additional troops but his silence on that point was regarded by staff officers here as due to his reluctance to present a phase of the situation that might be considered embarrassing rather than to any confidence he has in his ability to conduct the campaign against Villa much longer with the forces at his command. Additional troops may be sent to him without him asking for them if not General Funston will make representations to the war department explaining the necessity for strengthening the punitive

PLANS FOR AIDING CHINESE.

Plans have been made for a big "get-together" meeting at the First M. E. church in Springfield soon to further consider ways for helping the Chinese of the city, according to word from Miss Olive M. Blunt, who went to Springfield to take part in a plan for organizing the Chinese residents of the city. At a meeting attended by Miss Blunt twelve Chinese and sixteen Americans enjoyed luncheon, followed by a season of fellowship in which all took part with interest.

Classes for Chinese have been formed in Decatur, Monmouth, Madison, Wis., and Chicago and members in each case have seemed enthusiastic and appreciative of the effort put forth by their teachers.

ANDREW RUSSEL.

Altho Colonel Roosevelt's name did not appear on the preferential primary ballot, he received 11,620 votes in Chicago Tuesday. The figures are significant as giving some evidence of the colonel's popularity, since 11,620 people went to the trouble of writing his name on the ballot.

Barnes and Roosevelt.

When William Barnes of New York termed Theodore Roosevelt the most pernicious influence in the United States he probably did not make the colonel feel very badly. Colonel Roosevelt has never had any hesitancy about attacking persons or issues he wished to attack, and he hasn't any great feeling of delicacy about being attacked, and in the instance of Mr. Barnes he is more than likely to turn the attack into good political advertising. Just at present it is a safe guess that anything that keeps the former president's name in the papers and before the people will not be distasteful to him.

A New Mexican Idea.

From Americans long resident in Mexico now comes the argument that if Villa is captured and the U. S. troops are withdrawn that conditions will immediately become unsafe for Americans in Mexico. They insist that the coming of the troops has created even a stronger anti-American sentiment than previously existed and so they are hoping that the search for Villa may eventually turn into intervention. Developments have come in such a way in the American situation that those who have studied the problem are more and more convinced that while the intention of this government is just as stated—the pursuit and punishment of Villa—that there are many strong indications that a real settlement of affairs there will not come until the day of avowed intervention.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

THE GREAT BOON.

The boon of peace is slick as grease, and we should guard and prize it, and love it well, for war is hell—no delegate denies it. On Europe's strand, where peace is canned, and all of the kings are scrappy, the people know the depths of woe, and not a soul is happy. But here, where peace fulfills its lease, with industry, its neighbor, remote from fear we walk and hear the sounds of honest labor. The mill wheels hum, the plumbers plumb, the farmers go a-seeding, and you can walk a city block and see no fellow who is bleeding. The spinner spins, the tinner tins, the banker banks the bundle—oh, happy land, wherein the band is playing Yankee Doodle. Such peace as this is surely bliss, the timber sounds our gladness, the psalter psalms, the waltz waltz—to whoop for war is madness! By Europe's dreams the moonlight gleams on pale and ghastly corpses and heaven frowns on blackened towns and shattered guns and horses. But on this shore no wave of gore against the homesteads washes; the sunlight shines on pumpkin vines, and large and luscious squashes.

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

April 12, 1822—Colonel James Johnson of Kentucky procured from the government a three-year lease on the lead mines near Galena, and commenced operations there on a larger scale than had ever before been attempted.

zeal in his battle against preparedness. The big city papers yesterday carried page advertisements which Mr. Ford paid for, setting forth various reasons from his standpoint why it is absolutely unnecessary and unwise to carry out any extensive program of military preparedness in this country.

Mr. Ford in his advertisement declares that for the past year there has been a studied campaign on the part of great interests to inculcate a feeling of fear in the American people and that in reality there is nothing to justify any such feeling. One who reads the entire line of argument presented has the feeling that Mr. Ford is sincere but wonders also if the amount of publicity given to his doings and sayings has not rather served to touch his vanity.

MR. RUSSEL WINS.

The result of the election Tuesday in Morgan county and thruout the 20th congressional district was a personal victory for Andrew Russel. Here in his home county he won the contest for election as delegate to the National Republican convention by a very heavy majority. While the vote was not so large in other counties it was in about the same proportion in a number of them. Mr. Savage and Mr. Anderson had personal friends who worked in their interests yet the credit for the victory which came to the three must be given largely to Mr. Russel who entered the race with all the vigor, enthusiasm and earnest work which always mark his campaigns.

To persons who pay little attention to political affairs it seemed that a vast amount of effort was being expended out of proportion to the importance of the positions to be filled. Delegateships to the national convention are desired by party leaders but it is not often that such extensive campaigns are carried on to settle the identity of those who shall represent the district in conventions. As a rule the delegateships are settled without contest involving the expense of time and money, but in this contest there was a good deal more of moment than appeared on the surface.

While Mr. Russel and his associates feel friendly toward Senator Sherman's candidacy, they did not believe that the senator showed the usual political courtesy in failing to confer with Mr. Russel about the delegateship matter. As a state officer Mr. Russel is naturally considered the leading Republican in this district and Senator Sherman would have been following precedent if he had discussed the whole situation with him.

It was as the result of some such feeling as this that the candidacy of Mr. Russel and Mr. Savage, in opposition to the candidacy of Mr. Tice and Mr. Heinl, who had been designated by Senator Sherman as his own candidates, became a fact. It is an open secret that Mr. Russel had not been on politically friendly terms with Mr. Tice and Mr. Heinl and so a very sharp contest developed. Thruout the district there is a Sherman organization and Mr. Tice and Mr. Heinl relied to some extent upon this organization in making their contest. They declared that they were not seeking any personal aggrandizement, and were in the race because Senator Sherman had asked them to serve.

As a state officer, as a political leader the contest meant a great deal to Mr. Russel and a defeat would have had a serious effect upon his possible candidacy for the governorship later on. A few months ago the premeditated action brought about by several members of the Morgan County Central Committee made it possible for the statement to be heralded about that the Committee had refused to endorse Mr. Russel. Here at home it was known that this action did not, by any means, reflect the real sentiment of the party and the vote recorded in Morgan county yesterday gives the best answer to the statement referred to and proves its untruth. The election goes still further in that it indicates Mr. Russel's strength thruout the Twentieth Congressional district and the figures will be an asset if later on he actively enters the lists as a candidate for the governorship.

The result of the election should not be taken as indicating unfriendliness in the county or district to Senator Sherman for both Mr. Russel and Mr. Savage have declared their intention to support the senator for the presidency. It does indicate that the senator or his advisors made a political mistake in just the way the 20th district situation was handled.

One good thing about Republican differences in the past has been the ability to forget them when election days comes and that will no doubt be the condition in the present instance. Mr. Tice, Mr. Heinl and Mr. French are long time Republicans of the loyal type and they will be found as in the past seeking the best interests of the party. A little time heals a lot of differences and a united party will come before the November election rolls round. So let it be.

MORTUARY

Bailey.

This afternoon the venerable J. M. Bailey passed away at his home on West Court street. He had not been in good health for several years, tho he was able to be about till two weeks ago when he was confined to his bed and passed away as stated. A complication of diseases due largely to old age caused his death.

Tennessee was his native state where he was born Feb. 2, 1835, and there he grew to manhood and was married and there too four children were born. Two sons died in Kansas within a few years; one son, Emory Bailey, lives in Tennessee and one daughter, Mrs. Alpha Calfee, lives in Texas.

Mr. Bailey came to this state some forty-five years ago and settled in the Buckhorn neighborhood. His first wife died and he married again, this time to Mrs. Sarah B. Currier of Scott county and soon afterward removed to the vicinity of Grace Chapel west of Arcadia, living there two years and then going to Missouri, where they lived four years. They then came back to Jacksonville and since 1901 have conducted a boarding house and small hotel.

He is the father, by his present wife, of one daughter, Mrs. Gertrude May Brown, residing north of Waverly. He is survived by his wife, the sons and daughters named, nineteen grandchildren. In Tennessee he leaves three sisters, Mrs. Keziah Dunbar, Mrs. Catharine Fellers and Mrs. Amanda Holt. One brother and one sister are dead.

In his younger days Mr. Bailey was a member of the Baptist church and for fifteen years was a preacher but when he went to the northwest part of the county he allied himself with the Methodist Protestant denomination at Grace Chapel and for twenty-six years was a consistent member of that body.

The time for the funeral has not been announced.

Lindermann.

Mrs. Augusta Lindermann died Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. Deceased had been ill but four days. Deceased was born in Bakenfiori, Germany, February 22, 1850. She came to this country in 1887 and came directly to Morgan county which has since been her home.

She was united in marriage in Germany in 1873 to Christian Lindermann. She is survived by her husband and the following children, Henry, Otto H. and Martha, all of this city. Four children preceded

An Old Aphorism

Early to bed and early to rise, Makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise.
But to try this plan and nothing more,
Would make a farce of this metaphor.
For if you'd be healthy you must eat,
A liberal diet of good, fresh meat.
Your health is essential to wisdom and wealth,
Which makes every man consider himself
When it comes to the kind of meat; and plan
To get it fresh from the Butcher Man.

ERNEST CAWTHON OF PITTSFIELD ELECTROCUTED FROM HOUSE TOP

While Engaged in Moving Cottage
Thru Streets Tuesday Afternoon, Receives Current from High Power
Wire.

Ernest Cawthon met instant death
Tuesday afternoon when he caught hold of a 2,300 volt transmission wire while engaged in moving house thru the streets of Pittsfield. The accident happened at 2:15 o'clock.
Mr. Cawthon was on the roof and was apparently attempting to clear the way for further progress of the building, hindered by the obstructing high power wire.

Mr. Cawthon was 34 years old and was unmarried. Three brothers survive him. He was employed by James Billings, who had the moving of the house in charge.
Dr. L. Coley of Pittsfield, coroner of Pike county, held an inquest Tuesday evening at the home of Otha Cawthon, brother of the deceased, and a verdict of accidental death by electrocution was returned after short deliberation.

Well Known Resident of Jacksonville and Miss Lillian Mitchell of Chicago Named in Report.

Miss Lillian Mitchell of Chicago were Tuesday licensed to marry, according to word to the Journal, and the marriage is thought to have had received no message.

Mr. Abbott, who for several years has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. F. A. McCarty, 620 West College avenue, was for many years a Mason county resident. He was interested in light and power plant development at Mason City and at

SPEAKER ARRIVES IN CLEVELAND BUT REFUSES TO SIGN CONTRACT

Negotiations Will Be Continued This Morning When Naps' Owner Expects to Find a Way Out of the Difficulty.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 11.—Tris
Speaker, star outfielder of the Boston American team, recently purchased by the Cleveland American league club, arrived here today to make the final arrangements for his transfer, but refused to sign a contract. Negotiations will be continued tomorrow morning, when James C. Dunne, owner of the Cleveland club, expects to find a way out of the difficulty.

While Speaker and Dunne tonight had no difficulty in agreeing upon a salary figure, Speaker insisted that J. J. Lannin, president of the Boston club, pay him $5,000 of the purchase price received from Cleveland. Before leaving Boston Speaker tried to arrange this with Lannin but failed.
Tonight Dunne attempted to reach Lannin by wire and effect a settlement, but could not get in touch with the Boston man. It is believed Dunne and Speaker will reach a satisfactory settlement tomorrow in case Lannin should persist in his refusal.
Neither Speaker nor Dunne would make any statement tonight. Both said that whether Speaker dons a Cleveland uniform tomorrow depends upon the conference in the morning. It was intimated that the salary offered Speaker is well in excess of the $9,000 which had been offered him by the Boston club.

GERMAN ARMIES STILL ON THE OFFENSIVE

GAIN PORTIONS OF FRENCH TRENCHES
EAST OF LE MORT HOMME

French Drive Invaders From Advanced Trenches in Counter-Attack in Douaumont-Vaux Region
—Huss Stop Tenton Attempt To Take Offensive.

The armies of the German crown prince around Verdun are still vigorously on the offensive against the French. Having delivered an attack along the line from Le Mort Homme to Cumieres which netted them a few small portions of French trenches on the east of Le Mort Homme the German commanders redirected their infantry here; but in the region of Douaumont-Vaux, northeast of Verdun, threw their men in large numbers against the French trenches.

Drive Invaders from Trenches
Here again they met with success, but only for a short period of time for the French in a counter-attack drove the invaders from advanced sections of trenches they had captured and in the operations took about one hundred German prisoners.

While the Douaumont-Vaux attack was in progress the Germans had not overlooked the line between Le Mort Homme and Cumieres, and covered the entire region with an intense artillery fire, probably preparing for another infantry attack.

Along the remainder of the front in France and Belgium, there were only artillery bombardments. In one of these—north of the Aisne—the French guns caused serious loss to a strong German column on the march.

Russians Stop Attempt
In the Russian theater an attempt by the Germans to take the offensive in the region of the Ikskul bridge head was stopped by the Russians. The big guns on both sides have been busy at various points elsewhere along the front.

Petrograd reports that the Russians are continuing to gain ground against the Turks in the region of Erzerum.

Unofficial advices are to the effect that the Turks have regrouped their forces and are now resisting stubbornly the three Russian main lines of advance into their territory.
The Austrians between the Adige and Sugana Valley have brought into the campaign artillery which is described by Rome as new and very powerful. The Italian guns however, have replied effectively to their fire. No infantry attacks are reported in this theater of the war.

Enter Into Compact
Germany and Roumania have entered into a compact for the free exportation from one country to the other of home products for their own needs. War material is excepted from the agreement.

Greece, according to a semi-official dispatch from Berlin, has refused a request of the entente allies to be permitted to bring troops from Corfu to Saloniki thru Greek territory asserting that cholera prevails at Corfu.

of the American government respecting the disaster to the channel Steamer Sussex now is in the hands of the American ambassador at Berlin for transmission to Washington.

It is understood the United States still has much evidence to gather before a decisive step is taken.
While the general tenor of the German note has been anticipated by advices from Ambassador Gerard, officials realize that its text might have an important bearing on the American policy. The note is understood to refer not only to the Sussex, the most important recent cases, but to the Englishman, Manchester Engineer, Eagle Point and Berwin-dale.

In Session More Than Two Hours.
The cabinet remained in session more than two hours today and practically the entire time was devoted to a discussion of the submarine warfare.

Later it was said that the members stood as a unit in believing that the recent accumulation of attacks on vessels without warning, coming after a period of comparative lull in submarine activity could not be overlooked.

It was appreciated that much of the evidence under consideration had come not from American sources but from statements made by citizens of nations at war with Germany. For that reason the evidence is being very carefully examined. It is realized too, that at least some of the vessels said in dispatches to have been torpedoed without warning probably struck mines.

The possibility of a break in diplomatic relations with Germany still is in the background. It is understood such a step is not imminent unless the position taken by the German government should prove to be entirely unsatisfactory and fail to leave the way open for the action now in contemplation. Confidential advices received here today said the prevailing opinion in Holland now is that the Dutch liner Tubantia was sunk by a mine and not by a torpedo. The opinion was described as being based upon the investigation made of the sunken hulk of the vessel by divers. It was said that while the advices came from a source considered reliable official confirmation was lacking.

DEBATE PROPOSAL TO INVESTIGATE DAIRIES AND CREAMERIES

Hearing Before House Committee Is Adjourned Until May 10 on Request of Dairy Interests.

Washington, April 11.—A hearing before the house rules committee today on the Linticum resolution for a nation-wide inquiry into the sanitary conditions of dairies and creameries developed vigorous defense of and opposition to the proposal. At the request of the dairy interests the hearing was adjourned until May 10, when a dairy convention will be in session here.

Dr. A. D. Melvin, chief of the bureau of animal industry, and Dr. E.
C. Schroeder, an expert of the department of agriculture, urged such an investigation to determine whether federal inspection legislation is necessary.

Dr. Schroeder declared that children frequently contracted tuberculosis thru using the milk of infected cows and that probably 200 of them died annually in New York city from that cause. He estimated that ten per cent of the dairy cattle in the United States were tubercular.

Opposing the proposal, Dr. G. L.
McKay, secretary of the American Association of Creamery Butter manufacturers, said he represented men making one-fourth of the butter used in the United States and that their products were as pure as any in the world.

Dr. William Cressy, secretary of the National Dairy union, declared his organization was not opposed to an inquiry if it were made comprehensive enough to embrace all manufacturers of dairy products.

HORRORS OF WAR.

"I want a package of copper rivets," said the honest old farmer. "All right, but they'll cost you considerably more than you're used to paying," remarked the hardware merchant. "All the nations now at war are clamoring for copper, and as a result the price has gone sky high."

"Well, I suppose I'll have to take them, although I don't see why the price should go up when this country isn't at war. How are you selling nails now?"

"Oh, the price is out of sight. You see the governments now at war are building battleships and submarines and cannon and such things to beat the band, and iron is at a premium. Our nails are made of real iron, not of something just as good. We might offer you worthless substitutes at lower prices, but if you insist upon having real iron nails, you'll have to pay for them."

"I reckon that blamed war will send us all to the poor farm before it's ended. Never saw anything like the way prices are booming, and it's all on account of the war, everybody says. What do you ask for that set of work harness there? You offered it a year ago at $20."

"Times have changed since a year ago. It will take $45 to buy that set of harness now. If you read the newspapers, you must know that the warring governments simply can't get enough work harness. Lord Kitchener stated in the House of Lords just the other day that he couldn't guarantee an early finish to hostilities unless he was supplied with larger quantities of work harness. 'We have purchased millions of horses,' said he, with the tears rolling down his cheeks, 'and they are eating their doggone heads off, and we can't hitch them to anything simply because we can't get the harness.' With such an abnormal demand in evidence, it is easy to understand why work harness costs all kinds of money. By the way, you delivered some butter and eggs at my house last week, and my wife asked me to pay you. How much is your bill?"

"Well, there were two dozen eggs at 50 cents a dozen—"

"Why, you blamed old pirate, the last time I priced eggs at the grocery, they were twenty cents a dozen."

"Yes, but if you read the newspapers you must know that some of the warring nations have run out of ammunition, and are throwing eggs at each other, and this has created an abnormal demand. A man with half an eye can see how that will send the prices up. And some of the cavalry regiments have found that cows make better saddle animals than horses and they have agents here buying up all the cows. As a consequence the price of butter has gone up to seventy-five cents."

SENATE PASSES SUBSTITUTE TO HOUSE FREE SUGAR REPEAL

Four Democrats Join Republicans in Voting Against the Substitute, Favoring Flat Repeal Passed by House.

Washington, April 11.—The senate late today passed its substitute for the house free sugar repeal resolution, extending the present duty of one cent a pound on sugar until May, 1920. The vote was 40 to 22. Four Democrats, Senators Broussard, Dansell, Newlands and Lane, joined the Republicans in voting against the substitute. They favor the flat repeal passed by the house. A sharp controversy in conference between the two houses is predicted. Anticipating that the house would insist upon its resolution Senators Simmons, Stone and Lodge were named as the senate conferees.

Unless a conference agreement is reached and approved before May 1 sugar will go on the free list until such time as the repeal or extension of the duty can be made effective.

Most of the tariff discussion today did not touch upon the sugar issue, which had been talked out yesterday but was devoted to an amendment by Senator Works of California, to increase the tariff on lemons and other citrus fruits to one cent a pound. This was defeated by a vote of 44 to 29, Senator Phelan of California, being the only Democrat to support it.

Senator Phelan declared seven counties in California comprised the whole lemon producing region in the United States and that the reduction of the duty on lemons had caused a loss of $800,000 in revenue. He insisted that lemons were a luxury, not a necessity.

Senator Vardaman opposed the Works amendment and said that while he would vote for the senate substitute sugar resolution he would not give his assent to the house measure.

"I would not vote to tax any of the necessities of life for battleships that are not needed," he said. "I have very little sympathy for the preparedness program that seems to be agreed upon I would not be willing to pay for it with a tax on sugar, but would raise the money with a greater income tax, an inheritance tax and a much greater tax on the luxuries of life."

AUTOMOBILE SALESMAN-INVENTOR TO BE TRIED FOR BANK ROBBERY

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 11.—When William C. Rentz, an automobile salesman and inventor from Atlanta, Ga., is brought before United States Commissioner Adler today for preliminary examination in connection with the charge of implication in a daring train robbery committed at Central station, West Virginia, it is expected that extradition will be asked by the federal authorities, in order that Rentz may be taken to Parkersburg. Rentz is one of a quartet of suspects rounded up in various parts of the country after a long and thorough investigation by the postoffice department.

The sensational robbery of a mail car attached to a Baltimore and Ohio train in West Virginia on the night of Oct. 8, 1915, and the escape of three bandits with $102,000 in unsigned currency being forwarded by the treasury department to various national banks in Indiana and Ohio, set the government sleuths onto the trail of a clever band of robbers.

Rentz was arrested here on March 27. He is said to be a nephew of "Jeff" Harrison, who was arrested at San Antonio a few weeks prior to that time, and also a nephew of "Jack" Harrison of Grand Rapids, Mich., who was arrested in that city March 26. Rentz, according to postal inspectors, was trailed from the home of another uncle named Charles Harrison, at Atlanta, to the home of Jack at Grand Rapids. They say that he delivered a package to the latter. This fact Rentz has admitted, but he has declared that he did not know its contents.

When Jeff Harrison was arrested in Texas, it is said, the postoffice inspectors recovered some $19,000 of the unsigned currency taken from the postal car. Another batch of the unsigned bank notes was reported to have been recovered when the Grand Rapids man was taken.

The postoffice inspectors claim that there were three men on the train at the time of the robbery, and at least one man outside in charge of an automobile in which the members of the gang made their escape.

It is said in Washington that attempts were made in various parts of the country to circulate the stolen money. Fictitious signatures had been supplied to give the notes a perfectly genuine appearance.

Reports from Grand Rapids indicate that the Harrison capture at Grand Rapids has confessed to his part in the train robbery, and has told where the hidden loot could be secured. He has also given the names of his accomplices, it is said.

WORLD COURT CONGRESS AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., April 11.—All arrangements have been completed for the convention here tomorrow of the World Court congress. Leading men of the United States, and a few from foreign nations will address the gathering. According to the leaders of the World Court league, it is not their intention to interfere in any way in the big European war, but to begin now to plant the seed for a lasting peace when the present conflict ends.

Immediate disarmament is declared not to be the object of the movement. It is declared that the disarmament must be gradual and must come only when the nations of the world have subscribed to the establishment of the international tribunal.

Former President William H. Taft is honorary president of the World Court league, and John Hays Hammond is the active president. Other prominent men identified with the movement, many of whom are expected to be here during the conference, include John Wesley Hill, Alton B. Parker, Charles W. Fairbanks, Oscar S. Strauss, Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman, Henry Clews and Governor Ferris of Michigan.

THE CAUSE OF ANAEMIA.

It is universally known that iron is a very important element of the blood, and lack of it is the direct cause of run-down conditions and anaemia. It may interest our readers to know that Druggist Lee P. Alcott of this town, has in Vinol a reliable, constitutional remedy for such conditions. Vinol supplies iron to the blood in its most soluble state, then there's the nourishing properties of beef peptone and the medicinal curative extractives of fresh cod livers without oil, all dissolved in a pure native tonic wine. That's what makes Vinol so successful in overcoming run-down and anaemic conditions.—Adv.

Gums shrinking? Danger ahead!

Go now to a mirror and examine your mouth? Do your gums look "rinsed out," shrunken? Do you see a jagged appearance in the gum-line?

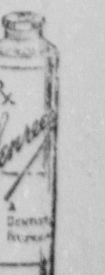

If so, see your dentist. He will tell you that you have pyorrhea, and that to save your teeth you will have to fight this dread disease at once.

From pyorrhea come by far the greater part of all tooth troubles. Unless treated and checked, it will result not only in the shrinking and malformation of your gums and of the bony structure into which your teeth are set, but in the loss of the teeth themselves.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senreco Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

SCHRAMMAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL SEASON OPENS TODAY

NATIONAL BEGINS ITS FORTY-FIRST SEASON.

Initial Contests Bring Together Boston and Brooklyn, New York at Philadelphia, Chicago at Cincinnati and Pittsburgh at St. Louis—Senators Open at New York, Athletics at Boston, Browns at Cleveland and Tigers at Chicago.

New York, April 11.—The major league baseball season of 1916 will be inaugurated in eight of the leading cities of the east and middle west tomorrow afternoon, weather permitting.

In the National league, which begins its forty-first season, the initial contests will bring together Boston and Brooklyn, New York at Philadelphia, Chicago at Cincinnati and Pittsburgh at St. Louis.

The opening games in the American league—its seventeenth season—will see Washington playing at New York, Philadelphia at Boston, St. Louis at Cleveland and Detroit at Chicago.

The defunct Federal league and the minor circuits have been fine-combed for diamond talent. In some cases famous stars will be seen in strange uniforms, but once the players and fans have accustomed themselves to the new combinations the general prediction of a "banner year in baseball" seems likely to be realized.

The Boston clubs appear to have the greatest number of backers altho the eleventh hour sale of Tris Speaker has not improved the chances of the Boston Americans. In the National league, Boston, Philadelphia, Brooklyn and New York generally are picked to finish in the first division while in the American league Boston, Chicago, Detroit and New York are favored to fill first division position.

In the senior league the Philadelphia club which won last season's pennant, starts the 1916 campaign with almost the same lineup as a year ago. Manager Moran believes the Phillies will repeat their winning performance. The Philadelphia club is fully as strong as last season but the general strengthening of the other clubs will make the going harder for the Quakers this summer.

The Boston Braves runners up to the Phillies last season are considered by many experts to be the class of the National league this year. The team has been strengthened with the addition of several former Federal league players, including Ed Konetchy, Frank Allen and Elmer Knetzer. George Stallings will appear again in the managerial role, while Percy Haughton, the famous Harvard football coach now is president of the club which changed ownership during the winter. The infield and pitching departments are unusually strong with a fair outfield and catching corps.

Brooklyn which wound up the 1915 race in third place appears to be fully as efficient as a year ago. Manager Robinson predicts that the club will be a pennant factor this year from the very start. The infield and pitching corps are the strongest features of the Superba combination. The catching department, due to the acquisition of Chief Meyers, is stronger than last year. The outfield with Johnston in the lineup should be fairly effective.

The winning ability of the Chicago club, which finished fourth a year ago, is uncertain. Joe Tinker has been trying to produce a winning combination from the amalgamated Cubs and Federals and found some of its veterans lacking in the speed he desires.

Team play has suffered somewhat from the fact that the players are not entirely accustomed to each other, while unexpected weakness in the infield and poor hitting have developed. Nevertheless, critics in Chicago believe the team will soon round into formidable shape.

Pittsburgh is another club which starts the season with a new manager at the helm. Jimmy Callahan, the 1916 leader, expects his team to finish in the first division in place of fifth, last year. The Pirates have a number of players and it probable.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT.

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.—Adv.

ably will take the best part of the season to weld the old and new material into an effective combination. Miller Huggins, manager of the St. Louis Nationals, will send his own name in as a player. Betzel will take the veteran's place at second base, while Beck will play his old position at third. The gap at shortstop will be filled by Roy Corbin, who made a good record in the Pacific Coast league.

The Cincinnati Reds have obtained a number of former Federals since last season when the team finished in seventh place, including Hal Chase, who, while a member of the New York Americans played first base in a manner that made him one of the stars of the game.

From last place a year ago to a first division berth is the prediction made by the supporters of the New York club. The Giants have been strengthened since last season, but it appears unlikely that the clan can make a successful fight for the pennant this year. The addition of Kauf, Roush and Hariden from the Federal ranks will help materially, however. The outfield is the best the Giants have had in many seasons in batting, fielding and throwing. The infield is unbalanced and uncertain quantity.

In the American league there have been fewer changes in the personnel of the teams. Boston, Detroit, Chicago, Washington and Philadelphia took few if any of the Federal league talent, altho it will try out young players. New York, Cleveland and St. Louis have strengthened their combinations from various sources and the race should prove unusually close.

Just what effect the absence of Tris Speaker from the world's championships will have on the season's play is problematical. The manager of the Red Sox seems to be well satisfied that Clarence Walker will fill the outfield vacancy satisfactorily. With these two changes and the addition of Sam Agnew to the staff of catchers, the playing strength of the club is formidable and its chances to repeat as pennant winners are seemingly more than promising.

Louisville, Ky., April 11.—The Chicago Nationals garnered sixteen hits off three Louisville pitchers and defeated the local American association club, 9 to 3 here today.

The New York club which won fifth place in last year's chase, has been greatly improved with the purchase of Lee Magee, Cullip and Gedeon from the Federals; Home Run Baker from the Athletics and a number of promising recruits from the minors.

Every department appears to be strong in both fielding and batting, while the pitching and catching staff is much superior to the old combinations.

Thru the acquisition of several Federal league stars, the St. Louis Americans, sixth last year, also considered much stronger.

Plank, a former pitcher for the Philadelphia Athletics and last year with the St. Louis is on the hurling staff together with Davenport, Groom, Crandall, a trio of Federal league pitchers. The Cuban, Armando Marsans, will be seen in the outfield.

The Cleveland American league team's chief addition strength lies in the acquisition of Speaker and Arnold Gandil from Washington.

Speaker's all around ability is a known asset. Gandil is a strong batsman, a good fielder and fast on the bases. Terry Turner, who served as a utility infielder much of last season, will play at third.

Tom Daly, catcher, and Larry Chappelle, outfielder, are two new faces that will be seen with the Indians, each at present slated for extra duty.

Connie Mack, manager of the once famous Athletics, is making no predictions. The Philadelphia American start the season with a mixture of veterans and minor league recruits and Mack has stated repeatedly that he is building for 1917.

PRINCETON BLANKS WILLIAMS. Princeton, N. J., April 11.—A well placed single just over first base in the ninth inning gave Princeton a victory over Williams here today.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

Union Stock Yards, Chicago, April 10.—Oliver S. Green with Walter Bros. U. S. Yards, Chicago, reports the estimated receipts for Monday, April 10th:

20,000 cattle.
59,000 hogs.
13,000 sheep.

The liberal run of steer cattle forced a recession of 10 to 15c. All grades of shoring in the decline. However the market opened fairly early. Shippers had good orders, and the beef trade picked up quickly when the run fell to around 27,000 last week, and the smallest supply of any week for many months. The competition was good from shippers, and that was the main factor to make an active market. The stock steady with last week's close. Packers free buyers. Bulls stronger. Calves got a firm call.

Hogs opened 15 to 20c lower than Saturday, on account of a big supply. Shipping orders large.

Trains arrived in good time. Market strengthened after 9 a. m. Singer kinds at $9.70. Feeder buyers from the country backed away, and are somewhat skeptical about the future bringing them any profit.

Sheep and lambs sell at 15 to 15c advance. Woolled Colorado lambs reached 11.70. Shearing stock makes 11.30. Among the beef cattle were a good showing of good to choice lots of all weights, and giving evidence that the country still has a fair supply of fairly well finished heaves. 2 car loads averaged 1653 at $9.95, 3 car loads avg. 1553 to 1690 at $9.80. With about 20 car loads including yearlings and handy and good weights $9.70 to $9.85. 25 head of 960 pound yearlings made $9.75.

Old sayings like this are fraught with a most important meaning. Among the recognized helps is a splendid remedy known as "Mother's Friend." Applied to the muscles it sinks deeply to make them firm and pliant, it thus lifts the strain on the nervous system, induces calm, restful nights of health-giving sleep and makes the days sunny and happy. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" of any druggist and you will then realize why it has been considered true to its name in our best homes through three generations. It is perfectly harmless but so effective that once used it is recommended to all expectant mothers by those who went through the ordeal with surprising ease. By writing to Bradfield Regulator Co., 512 Lamar Bldg., you can have a free copy of a wonderful story book that unfolds those things which all expectant mothers delight to read. Write today.

It is mailed free. Among its features are an explanation of the remedy's action, the first pulsations, preparturient uneasiness, date of expectancy, how to be comfortable, and a great variety of topics all bearing upon the one subject of expectant motherhood. Sure Way To Get Rid Of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

203 EAST MORGAN ST

A Trip Thru the South

(By William Epler.)

Not many people of Jacksonville or Morgan Co. have visited the birth place of George Washington, or Stratford Hall, the ancient seat of the Lee family, both in Westmoreland County, Virginia. A whilom citizen of Jacksonville recently made a visit to that enchanted land and here is what he has to say about it. (Editor.)

Early in the morning of August 19, 1914, we left Virginia, Illinois for a trip down the Potomac River to Westmoreland, Virginia. My mission was sight seeing and to visit localities made memorable by achievements of great men. We arrived at Washington, City, on the 20th, about noon. After visiting Arlington and Mt. Vernon on the 22nd, we took the excursion steamer, St. John, down the Potomac River, if a river it can be called, to Colonial Beach, in Westmoreland County, 72 miles below Washington.

Chartering an auto, we were soon on our way, over the beautifully played highway leading to Montross, the County seat. The drive to Stratford Hall is about twenty miles, to Washington's birthplace about half as far. Down the coast neither place is over half as far as here given, but to get there by auto they have to go around the head of Monroe creek. After proceeding about eight miles we left the main highway, taking a common county road, leading off to the left, towards the coast. Two or three miles on this road brought us to Wakefield, the name by which the old Augustine Washington plantation is now known.

Augustine Washington was the father of George. We entered the old plantation from the back way, driving thru the place we saw good evidence of its fertility, in the shape of twelve or fifteen stacks of grain, oats or wheat we supposed. Those stacks looked quite familiar to an Illinois man. This evidence of fertility was all the more noticeable, as we had not observed coming down from Colonial Beach, that agriculture had improved, as we came East from Illinois, in fact, crops looked very discouragingly (mostly truck) because of the exceedingly dry season. Soon, in the distance, we saw a beautiful monument which we knew marked the birth place of the Father of Our Country. Needless to say we approached the place with real feelings akin to veneration, and with a feeling that a boyhood dream had become a reality.

The house in which Washington was born was destroyed by fire upon a windy April day, in 1735, soon after his birth, (he was three years old) and never rebuilt. Many years afterwards a stone was placed to mark the site, by George Washington Park Curtis, a grandson of Madam Martha Washington. It bore the simple inscription, "Here, on the 11th of February (old style) 1732, George Washington was born." In this old Westmoreland home, Marion Harland, in her "Story of Mary Washington," relates the occurrence of a sad tragedy, as follows: "Madam Washington was entertaining a young lady visitor. The two ladies were sitting at supper while a thunder storm was passing. When a flash of lightning struck the young lady killing her instantly."

We found the location slightly, on a low smoothly rounded ridge, lying between Pope's Creek and Bridge's Creek, about one half mile from the junction of Pope's Creek with the Potomac. The monument is a beautiful monolithic gray granite shaft, forty or fifty feet high, bearing the simple inscription, "The Birth Place of George Washington, erected by the U. S. Government." It is enclosed by a stout iron fence or railing, about eight feet high, made so to protect the monument from the vandalism so common with thoughtless tourists. Needless to say, the surrounding turf, several acres in extent, is beautifully kept. While we lingered, to add to the charm of the peaceful surroundings, a large flock of black domestic turkeys came out of a near by pine wood, feeding quietly around and off to an adjoining grain field. Doubtless the same domestic scene was often witnessed 184 years ago when Mary Washington abided there as Mistress. These turkeys were the only living creatures we saw around the place. The Wakefield property is now owned by Mr. John Wilson. Mrs. Wilson, we were informed, is a lineal descendant of William Augustine Washington, half brother of George. So it would seem the ancient plantation, at least a part of it, still remains with the Washington kindred. We were not informed of the extent of the Government reservation. It is of sufficient extent, however, to include the site of the birth place and the old family grave yard, near by, in which repose the remains of George's father.

Renewing our journey we soon regained the Montross highway. After proceeding about six miles farther towards Montross, we took another country road, leading off to the left, towards the coast. After going about two miles we entered an open field, looking across we beheld the main object of our quest, Old Stratford Hall, the ancient seat of the Lee family in America.

On a nearer approach to this ancient semi-feudal mansion, in appearance, uncouth and massive, evidently English and very old English at that.

But what history has been made under that ancient roof? It might be said that here war had been declared, here peace had been made, here the great Lees, with their co-patriots, planned for separation from the Mother Country and organized the Revolution. Knowing and appreciating all this we approached and entered this relic of Colonial days with feelings deeply impressed.

This famous building, Stratford Hall, one of the most famous in all North America, was erected for Thomas Lee, great grandfather of the Confederate General, Robert E. Lee, previous to the year 1732, after the loss of his family seat by fire, by Queen Carolina, Queen of George II. King of England. The Queen wrote him an autograph letter which is still preserved in the family.

This friendly act on the part of the Queen was prompted by a feeling of gratitude, because of the loyalty of the Lee family to the crown, during the Cornwellian troubles. On arriving at and entering the Hall, we were received by Mr. Stewart, present proprietor, and his amiable sister, who, when informed of the object of our visit, extended to us every courtesy.

We were taken into the Great Hall, wainscotted from floor to ceiling and if I remember correctly, the ceiling itself was wainscotted, doubtless, the same that was built into the old manor house 184 years or more ago. We were shown thru other rooms, all rooms were large.

One room in particular attracted our attention, inasmuch, in that room were born two signers of the Declaration of Independence, Richard Henry Lee and his brother Francis Lightfoot Lee. Also in that room was born the famous Confederate General Robert E. Lee. Where else in America can so much be said of a single room?

It was Richard Henry Lee who wrote and moved the adoption of that now historic resolution, in the Continental Congress, that proved the final separation of the Colonies from Great Britain, as follows:—

"Resolved, That these United Colonies are, and right ought to be free and independent states, that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved."

The original copy of this resolution, just as the Great Richard Henry Lee wrote it, is preserved in the archives of the state department at Washington—Richard Henry Lee is called by the celebrated author and statesman, William Wirt, the Cicero of the Continental congress. We were also shown the wonderful old kitchen (the Lees were lavish entertainers), with its yawning fire place for cooking, large enough to spit a mutton or a half ox, the same old cranes from which to suspend pots and kettles, and near by was a bake oven, all now abandoned, but tangible reminders of the 18th century civilization. In the lower part of the lawn was pointed out the sun dial that did duty for the colonial Lees, and still could be used—at the foot of the sun dial lay a large bomb shell, thrown from a British fleet, passing up the Potomac, in the War of 1812. The bomb was found in the nearby wood unexploded brought to the Hall and kept as a souvenir of British ill will. My time was up. Altogether too short, but my promise to the auto man must be kept. On taking our leave the gracious lady, mentioned before, plucked a rose bud and pinned it to the lapel of our coat, which I carefully preserved as a reminder of my visit to Stratford Hall and of the obliging, kindly people I met there—Looking back at the old historic pile, as we recrossed the field on our return, the thought came to my mind that this is certainly one of the places that should be owned and cared for by the U. S. government, the State of Virginia, or by some association with a view to its preservation for future generations.

Its construction is such that with the repairs incident to all architecture, it would endure thru the ages. Historic Westmoreland has given to our country two presidents—George Washington and James Monroe, (a third, James Madison, was born just over the line in another county, three miles distant. Also, two signers of the Declaration of Independence—Richard Henry Lee and Francis Lightfoot Lee, and a large number of Revolutionary Patriots.

A little of the genealogy of the Lee family may not be uninteresting. Richard Lee, pioneer of the Lee family in America, went over to the Colony of Virginia in 1641, as secretary and privy counsel for King Charles I. He was one of the young branches of the Noble House of Litefield. He settled at Stratford which for nearly two centuries was the seat of the Lee family.

Richard II. born at Stratford in 1646, Thomas, son of Richard II, was the father of Richard Henry and Francis Lightfoot—Gen. Henry Lee, in Revolutionary times known as "Light horse Harry," was a cousin of Richard Henry and Francis Lightfoot. He was the father of Gen. Robert E. Lee, was scholar, a graduate of Princeton, orator, warrior and statesman, beloved friend of Gen. George Washington, at whose funeral in Congress, he delivered the oration which contains that classic phrase, "First in war, first in peace, first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Such was the ancestry of Gen. Robert E. Lee, on his paternal side, on his maternal side he was of the Carters, of Shirley, on James River. The facts herein presented in regard to Stratford Hall and the Lee family, do not belong to tradition. I obtained them from a letter written by Mr. Charles Carter Lee, of Powhatan, Virginia, a brother of Gen. Robert E. Lee. I found said letter in a book of Lee Genealogy, in the Congressional Library, Washington, D. C.

EXTREME DULLNESS FALLS OVER STOCK MARKET

Volume of Operations Falls Far Below Recent Averages.

New York, April 11.—Extreme dullness settled over today's market the volume of operations falling far below recent averages. The most of the session was one irregular period of stagnation and narrow price changes. News regarding developments in Germany and Mexico exerted only mild interest until before the close when rumors of an early "ultimatum" to Berlin gained currency and provoked fresh pressure.

Advances in some issues were met by moderate offerings which soon effaced gains. New Haven was singled out for sale during the first hours declining 2 1/2% to 60% in connection with reports of unfavorable March earnings. Other rails were quoted intermittently, Louisville and Nashville, Southern Railway preferred and Denver and Rio Grande preferred falling a point each.

New York, Chicago and St. Louis second preferred on a single sale dropped 6% to 50. Exchange on Paris made the low rate of 60 3/4 for checks, but lire were stronger, with nominal changes in sterling and marks. Total sales of stocks amounted to 520,000 shares.

ST. LOUIS CASH GRAIN MARKET. St. Louis, April 11.—Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.30; No. 3 red, $1.24; No. 4 red, $1.02 to $1.18; No. 3 hard winter, $1.12 to $1.17; No. 4 hard winter, $1.09 to $1.12. Corn—No. 2, 75c; No. 3, 74c to 75c; No. 4, 72c; No. 2 white, 75c; No. 3 white, 73c; No. 2 yellow, 78c; No. 4 yellow, 74c to 75c. Oats—No. 2, 43c; No. 3, 41c to 42c; No. 4, 39c to 40c; No. 3 white, 43c; No. 4 white, 42c to 43c; standard, 45c.

MINNEAPOLIS GRAIN MARKET. Minneapolis, April 11.—Wheat higher; reports of crop damage in the southwest helped to strengthen the market after a weak opening. May finished at $1.20 1/2, 1 1/2c above yesterday's close and July finished 1 1/2c to 1 1/2c up.

Cash—No. 1 hard, $1.26 1/2; No. 1 northern, $1.22 1/2 to $1.24 1/2; to arrive, $1.21 1/2 to $1.23 1/2; No. 2 northern, $1.20 1/2 to $1.22 1/2; No. 3 wheat, $1.14 1/2 to $1.19 1/2.

KANSAS CITY MARKETS.

Kansas City Stock Yards, April 10.—Cattle supply at all points dropped off sharply last week, but the decrease was largely beef cattle. Total supply here was 7000 head less than previous week, but shipments out of stockers and feeders decreased only 1500 head. Prices advanced 10 to 15 cents during the week. Today the cattle supply is 14000 head, largest Monday supply for several weeks, beef cattle market 10 to 20c lower, stockers and feeders lower in sympathy. Demand recently has come from all quarters, Illinois buying more heavily than heretofore, a single section taking 500 head of steers last week, of weights ranging from 700 to 1000 lbs., the best of which lost $8.05. Most of the feeders sell at $7.80 to $8.40, a few fancy steers up to $8.75, and stock steers ranged today from $7.35 to $8, a few choice light weight steers up to $8.50, and fancy stock calves $9.00. A train of horned Panhandle Hereford steer calves passed thru here last Tuesday, weights slightly under 400 lbs. average, which cost the buyer $4.00 a head on the Texas range, on which $3 shipping bill would have to be added before they reached their North-western Kansas destination, which meant close to 11 cents a pound net cost. Nine cents a pound looks high on the market. The practice of buying by the head is less in vogue this year than formerly, and will doubtless go out of use entirely, as in buying by the pound, a man is at least acting with his eyes open. There is still a strong demand for stock cows and heifers, better calves selling up to $9.75 again last week. An Oklahoma buyer who has shipped large number of cows and heifers to Osage pastures in the last few months filled another order here last week. Oklahoma and Kansas pastures will be filled to capacity this season, according to late reports. Missouri summer feeders are also taking out a good many steers, for an early finish on blue grass and corn. Feeding lands are lower, and not much doing in that line, best in the last week selling at $10.30. Brusher goats are in fair supply here, some medium quality selling today at $5.10, 25c lbs. av. immune stock hogs are 85c lower, selected native $9.50 to $9.75, well bred Southern $9.25 to $9.50.—J. A. Rickart, Market Correspondent.

There was a large attendance with a profusion of flowers. He was buried in the city cemetery. Those from a distance at the funeral were G. R. Fox and wife of Chapin, and Miss Addie Culver, Dr. Babcock and wife of Paxton, Illinois.

FROM THE EDUCATOR'S

Philadelphia — Educators from many sections of the United States are assembling here this week to discuss matters of vital interest to the school teachers of America. The conference, which is known as "Schoolmen Week," is being held at the University of Pennsylvania, extending to Saturday. Dr. Frank P. Graves will deliver tomorrow an illustrated lecture on "The Evolution of Educational Methods." Among the speakers who have come from a distance is Dr. Lotus D. Coffman, dean of the College of Education, University of Minnesota.

Cincinnati — Another innovation in education has been completed successfully by the Cincinnati Public school system. Tomorrow between a dozen and 20 young men will be graduated from the first school for baseball umpires. The unique school is a tribute to the prominence of sport in American every-day life, and an attempt to put sport on an efficient basis. If the American people are to flock into the open and see the god old game played, it has seemed necessary that it be played right, and that the essential elements of impartiality and accuracy be assured through scientific methods. The school was opened last November, in response to a request from the amateur baseball players. William Hart, former National League umpire, was in charge of this year's class, and William Carpenter, an umpire in the International League, taught the class which will be graduated a year from now.

New Orleans — Dr. A. F. Watkins, president of Millsaps College at Jackson, Miss., will preside at the Southern Conference for Education and Industry, which will open here tomorrow. It is hard to imagine a gathering with greater dynamic possibilities than the big meeting of Southern educators which will be in session here for over a week. The Southern Educational Council will focus the lessons taught by the war, and consider the changes needed in the educational and industrial policies to bring about closer cooperation of all Americans. Conference of teachers and college heads will be held during the week, all being on the subject of effectiveness of education. The Southern Conference was organized from three bodies—the Southern Educational Association, the Conference of Education, in the South, and the Southern Educational Board. There are many other organizations meeting here at the same time, all under the general term of the Southern Sociological Congress.

New York — The Barnard College addition, which was donated by Jacob H. Schiff, in commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of his arrival in this country, will cost close to half a million dollars, and work will soon be begun on its construction. The building will be known as Students' Hall. It will be open the year round, and will serve as the college center for social and religious activities. Mr. Schiff was one of the original trustees of the college and its first treasurer.

A CHILD'S TONGUE SHOWS IF LIVER OR BOWELS ARE ACTIVE

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, give Fruit Laxative at Once.

Every mother realizes after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, Mother! If coated give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, undigested food passes out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

favor and for Andrew Russel was still heavier.

Greene County.

There are 23 precincts in Greene county and reports from Carrollton, Greenfield, White Hall and Roodhouse indicated that Andrew Russel, Samuel O. Savage and Ray N. Anderson were far in the lead of the opposing candidates.

Cass County.

Four precincts in Beardstown gave:

Homer J. Tice 150
Andrew Russel 120
R. J. Heintz 60
S. O. Savage 25
Ray N. Anderson 70
A. L. French 80

In Virginia S. O. Savage and Andrew Russel stood well in the lead of the other candidates for delegate and R. N. Anderson had a good majority over A. L. French.

Scott County.

The vote in Scott county was light and reports from Winchester Tuesday night showed no contest save in the matter of delegate and state central committee on the Republican ticket. With ten precincts out of thirteen heard from the vote for delegate to the nominating convention stood: Russel, 340; Savage, 273; Tice, 77; Heintz, 63. Ray N. Anderson's vote was 269 and A. L. French's 117.

At Naples the vote was as follows: Homer J. Tice, 4; Frank J. Heintz, 6; Samuel O. Savage, 21; Andrew Russel, 31; Ray N. Anderson 31; A. L. French 1. In Oxville Andrew Russel received 6 votes, Samuel O. Savage 2, Frank J. Heintz 3, and Homer Tice none; Ray N. Anderson received 4 votes and A. L. French none.

Returns from Bluffs gave Andrew Russel, 87; Samuel O. Savage, 81; Homer J. Tice, 9; F. J. Heintz, 9. R. N. Anderson's vote was about in the same proportion as that cast for A. L. French.

Pike County.

According to reports from Pittsfield R. N. Anderson carried Pike county over A. L. French by a four to one vote. Indications were that Andrew Russel and S. O. Savage had also carried the county by a heavy majority over H. J. Tice and F. J. Heintz.

Mason County.

Reports from Havana indicated that Andrew Russel and S. O. Savage had a good lead over their competitors in Mason county. R. N. Anderson was also easily first.

LESS INTEREST IN DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY THAN IN OPPOSING PARTY

Only Contests for Place Was Among Candidates for Delegates at Large—Total for Morgan County.

There was not nearly as much interest in the Democratic primary as in the Republican ranks. There was no contest over delegates to the national convention from this district, but M. F. Dunlap received 713 votes in Morgan county against 587 cast for Mr. Williams. Among delegates at large the highest vote was cast for Congressman Rainey, which was 687, and the lowest for Mr. Eckhart, who received 240. It was significant that Governor Dunne's vote was but 334. This may be accounted for in part by the fact that his name was down toward the bottom of the list. The total vote cast for the several candidates in twenty-six precincts in Morgan county was as follows:

expedition at the first call from General Pershing.

Headquarters officials were frank in their expressions of amazement that General Pershing had gone as far as he has with the forces he has and almost hourly have expected word from him that he dare not send farther into Mexico the cavalry columns now about Parral, 400 miles south of the border, unless more men are provided for the extension of the line of communication.

In the absence of any news for an official source indicating Villa's death the routine work incidental to the conduct of the punitive expedition in Mexico was continued at departmental headquarters.

Makes No Comment on Reports.

General Funston was shown press dispatches from various quarters containing the rumor that the bandit chieftain had succumbed to his wounds southwest of Chihuahua, but no communication containing even the rumor was received from any army officer, it was said. General Funston made no comment on the reports that Villa was dead.

General Pershing now has less than 12,000 men and along the border there are about 18,000. General Funston does not consider it wise to remove any of those now on duty along the border, unless their places are taken by others.

There are only about 4,000 others available, it is said, but if it is decided to reinforce General Pershing's army it is believed probable that General Funston will ask for militia organizations to replace those he will send across the border.

News from the region beyond Satevo was lacking today. Lieutenants Jorrell and Dargue arrived by aeroplane today from a point 330 miles in Mexico to Columbus, N. M., making the distance in four hours, but Major Sample at Columbus reported to General Funston that they brought no dispatches. It was from the aviators that one rumor that Villa was dead was received.

From them it was learned also that General Pershing was expected to arrive tonight at Satevo, forty miles south of Chihuahua.

Record Marked Progress.

Washington, April 11.—Marked progress toward solving the problem of supplying General Pershing's columns, and further evidences of cooperation by Carranza soldiers in the pursuit of Villa were recorded in today's official reports from Mexico and the border.

Rumors from several sources that Villa had died of blood poisoning together with press dispatches from Queretaro telling of an announcement by the de facto government's war department that it had been believed the bandit chief had been killed in action were the occasion of much discussion here. In some quarters there was a disposition to credit reports, but they were without official confirmation and both army officials and state department officials suggested that they probably had been sent out by Villa's friends as a ruse.

At the state and war departments tonight it was admitted that Villa's exact location was not known and that no news regarding General Pershing's operations had been received for several days. The last state department report regarding Villa's whereabouts was that he was near Parral and headed south.

Officials expressed satisfaction over the results accomplished by use of the Mexican railway in forwarding supplies thru private shippers to General Pershing. Two train loads were reported to have left Juarez recently. Major General Scott, chief of staff, said the transportation situation was much improved and the troops now apparently were being supplied abundantly.

General Funston telegraphed that a "satisfactory conference" had been held by General Pershing with General Herrera and another with General Gutierrez.

PLEASED SONG SERVICE HELD AT CENTENARY M. E. REV. VAL.

Congregation Enters Heartily Into Spirit of Occasion—"Heaven's Interest in Us" Theme of Pastor, The Rev. G. W. Flagg.

The congregation entered heartily into the spirit of the revival service at Centenary M. E. church last night. They responded almost as well as the chorus to the requests of the leader, and enjoyed it too. The special numbers were a quartet, Misses Nelle Self and Clara Ranson, Messrs Rex J. Moon and Albert C. Metcalf, who sang "My Heavenly Father Watches Over Me"; a solo by Mr. Moon, "He Loves Even Me." The hymn preceding the prayer, "Calling Today," was sung by chorus and congregation and closed with an echo refrain by Mr. Metcalf. It was the most interesting and helpful song service yet held.

Tonight will be "Request Night." Mr. Moon announced that any one wishing any number sung should hand the ushers that number either at the close of the service, or this evening. Quite a number of requests came in promptly.

The sermon was on the subject, "Heaven's Interest in Us." The text was Luke 15:7. "There shall be joy in heaven." It was pointed out that this was a prophecy personal to us in ways few others are. The sinner repenting is cause for Christ to call on heaven to rejoice as the shepherd called on friends and neighbors to rejoice with him. It is a great thing to do some good deed that calls out the admiration of the eternal world. It is not recorded heaven would sing with joy over the most remarkable invention, but penitence sets saints over there rejoicing. Nor is the sinner the only one to arouse heaven's joy. The child confessing Jesus, because "to it belongeth the kingdom of heaven," must awake joy in heaven, since it is written Jesus will confess those there that confess Him here. And if one announcement by Him in the case of a penitent sinner causes rejoicing, the other, of the confession of a child, would be likewise cause for rejoicing.

MR. FLYNN HAS GOOD MEMORY

An unusual incident happened in the office of Circuit Clerk Pyatt yesterday when Daniel Flynn of the Prentice neighborhood came to the office and asked Deputy G. L. Masters for a deed which he said that he left in the recorder's office June 2, 1857. Mr. Flynn said that he was positive that the deed was there because he had never called for it and remembered distinctly having left it. A brief search thru the files showed that Mr. Flynn's memory was good and the document that he had left there considerably more than half a century since was turned over to him. The deed is the record of the transfer of forty acres of land in section 23, township 16 and range 9, made to Mr. Flynn by Peter Thompson. The price paid for the tract at that time was $110 and a fair valuation now would be $6,000.

The meetings will continue thruout the week with the following program:

Wednesday: A Royal Tragedy.
Thursday: On the Judgment—A Special.

Friday: Separation, Destiny.

"MEETING THE CRISIS" THEME OF EVANGELIST AT GRACE CHURCH

The Rev. E. K. Towle Speaks on Strength of Life Lived by Jesus—"Our God's Great Love" Will be Subject of Discourse Tonight.

Further good services Tuesday evening reflected the growing interest in the Lenten services at Grace M. E. church. E. A. Hearn sang "There is No Friend Like Jesus." The subject of the Rev. E. K. Towle was "Meeting the Crisis" and the sermon was especially well received.

"Our God's Great Love" will be the evangelists sermon subject to-night. In speaking last night of Christ's habit of private prayer, Mr. Towle said in part:

"The prayer life of Jesus amazes us. We wonder at first that he prayed at all. Jesus had every form of strength which right thinking men associate with masculine life. Strength of body, mind, purpose, and will, marvellous strength of affection, splendid and permanent strength to move in the midst of a foul atmosphere and not yield to its contagion; amazing patience, astonishingly fearless before hostility, undaunted by attacks from officialdom, admirable in effective strength from every angle, yet this man Jesus prayed. He constantly prayed. And who that ever travelled the ways of man was stronger.

"Look upon that desperate scene and contest know as the temptation. Great issues hung in the balance. The world stood convicted of sin. Failure was stamped on the brow of humanity. Prophets and priests, all had failed to redeem the race. Could he succeed? Could any one win? And How? Forty days he wrestled with convictions and God. He prayed and as he prayed he made his choice. Which way? Eternities hung on that decision.

"Another crucial hour is that preceding his transfiguration. He is in the thick of his ministry. The tempter is not mentioned. But the air is hot with omens of rejection. The atmosphere is thick with suspicion, derision, contempt and calumny. Storms of hostility are brewing everywhere. He came to his own and own received him not. With worn tired heart he went into the mountain to pray. Had he made the choice that would win? Was it going to pay to go on? He prayed and while he prayed he made his choice.

"In our own degree we have as significant choice to make both in private and corporate life as did our Saviour. We must choose our careers, our companions, our ideals, our work, our direction in life. Christ lived for things worth perpetuating. Do we? Does our heavenly Father want our life imbedded in the conscience and conduct of the community and in the life of coming generations? If we live beyond our day in the life, thought and faith of those who come after us, we must pray we must know God's will, in order that the big and eternal considerations might possess the mind.

"Nothing kills little things like sincere prayer. Prayer rooms are the throne palaces of big things, big motives, big sympathies, big ideals, big purposes. The longest range of vision is out of the windows of the prayer room. A lost man is seen best from the balcony of the prayer room.

"To redeem the world is the job of the ages. It is a task for kings, for the strong. If Jesus tackled the job on his knees, let us never think that we will take this generation mad with the pleasures of the world by a silky sentimental faith and torn down altars of prayer. Comparatively speaking this is a prayerless age. "The ringing challenge of Jesus is to follow him."
